E. H. Gombrich | Open Library
The Story of Art encompasses the whole period of human endeavour in producing art, from cave painitngs created in prehistoric times right through to the late 20th century. Inevitably, a book with such a broad sweep has no room for in-depth analysis and there are many major works and artists which are not mentioned and sometimes I felt the book tried to cover too much ground,hence 4 stars rather than 5.
